You Shall Go Out With Joy

Music by Joy Nilo

You shall go out with joy
and be led forth with peace.

The mountains and the hills shall break forth into singing.

As the rain and the snow fall from heaven,
nourishing the earth to make it flourish,
so that it yields seeds for the sower
and bread for the eater;

So shall the word that comes out of my mouth
will never return to me empty, but will accomplish what I desire!

Range: G3-G5 (optional C6) Difficulty: Medium-Difficult

Description: This song is about the hope and assurance promised in the Word of the Divine.

Stylistic features: Use of body percussion (handclaps, stomps), contrapuntal singing

Technical challenges: Counterpoint creates unfamiliar, nontraditional harmonies. Attention must be paid to intonation.

Pedagogical value: This piece provides the opportunity to learn the basic musical concepts such as the subject (melodic theme), retrograde motion, contrary motion, motifs, strettos, linear singing, phrasing, dynamics, and counterpoint.

Performance suggestions: It is advised that the song is memorized for performance in order to easily integrate the body percussion and execute the proper phrasings of the various themes.

About the composer

Joy T. Nilo started singing in the choir at age 4 and has joined various choirs for more than four decades since then. He studied composition and conducting under three Filipino National Artists for Music and other international choral experts.
